

Fees for provision of images and photocopies

General information

The Museen Böttcherstraße charge usage, lending and processing fees for every commercial use of reproductions of works from its holdings, namely, for images of works by Paula Modersohn-Becker, Bernhard Hoetger and Clifford Holmead Phillips as well as the complete collections of the Ludwig Roselius Museum (see memorandum by the presiding senator from 17 June 1994). Copyright for the works of Hoetger and Holmead is not held by the Museen Böttcherstraße. In the case of works owned by third parties (e.g. Paula-Modersohn-Becker-Stiftung or the “Silberschatz” of the Brotherhood of Blackheads from Riga), corresponding permissions are to be secured in advance.
